SUPERVISED RELEASE

Upon release from imprisonment, the defendant shall be on supervised release for a term of thirty (30) months.

While on supervised release, the defendant shall not commit another Federal, state, or local crime and shall comply with the standard conditions that have been adopted by this court (set forth on the following page.) If this judgment imposes a restitution obligation, it shall be a condition of supervised release that the defendant pay any such restitution that remains unpaid at the commencement of the term of supervised release. The defendant shall comply with the following additional conditions:

Pursuant to 18 U.S.C. 3583(d), defendant shall submit to a drug test within fifteen (15) days of release on Supervised Release and at least two (2) periodic drug tests thereafter to determine whether defendant is using a controlled substance. Further, defendant shall submit to such testing as requested by any United States Probation Officer to detect the presence of controlled substances in the defendant's body fluids and to determine whether the defendant has used any of those substances. Defendant shall pay for the collection of urine samples to be tested for the use of controlled substances.

1. Paragraph #8 of the Standard Conditions of Supervision is modified. Instead of merely refraining from excessive use of alcohol, the defendant shall not purchase or possess, use, distribute, or administer any alcohol, just the same as any other narcotic or controlled substance.

2. Defendant shall attend, pay for, and successfully complete any diagnostic, evaluation, treatment or counseling program, or approved support groups such as AA or NA for controlled substance abuse, as directed by the probation officer.

3. Defendant shall provide the U. S. Probation Officer with access to any requested financial information.

4. Defendant shall be subject to search of the defendant's premises, vehicle or person, day or night, with or without a warrant, at the request of the United States Probation Officer to determine the presence of controlled substances, firearms, or any other contraband. Any such items found may be seized by the probation officer. This condition may be invoked with or without the cooperation of law enforcement officers.

5. The defendant shall cooperate in the collection of DNA as directed by the probation officer, pursuant to the Public Law 108-405 (Revised DNA Collection Requirements Under the Justice for All Act of 2004), if such sample was not collected during imprisonment.

6. Defendant shall report to the Supervision Unit of the United States Probation Office in the district of his release between the hours of 8:00 a.m. and 4:30 p.m. within seventy-two (72) hours of release from confinement.

STANDARD CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

While the defendant is on probation or supervised release pursuant to this Judgment:

- 1) the defendant shall not commit another Federal, state or local crime;
- 2) the defendant shall not leave the judicial district without the permission of the court or probation officer;
- 3) the defendant shall report to the probation officer as directed by the court or the probation officer and shall submit a truthful and complete written report within the first five days of each month;
- 4) the defendant shall answer truthfully all inquiries by the probation officer and follow the instructions of the probation officer;
- 5) the defendant shall support his or her dependents and meet other family responsibilities (including, but not limited to, complying with the terms of any court order or administrative process pursuant to the law of a state, the District of Columbia, or any other possession or territory of the United States requiring payments by the defendant for the support and maintenance of any child or of a child and the parent with whom the child is living);
- 6) the defendant shall work regularly at a lawful occupation unless excused by the probation officer for schooling, training, or other acceptable reasons;
- 7) the defendant shall notify the probation officer at least ten days prior to any change in residence or employment;
- 8) the defendant shall refrain from excessive use of alcohol and shall not purchase, possess, use, distribute, or administer any narcotic or other controlled substance, or any paraphernalia related to such substances, except as prescribed by a physician;
- 9) the defendant shall not frequent places where controlled substances are illegally sold, used, distributed, or administered or other places as specified by the court;
- 10) the defendant shall not associate with any persons engaged in criminal activity, and shall not associate with any person convicted of a felony unless granted permission to do so by the probation officer;

- 11) the defendant shall permit a probation officer to visit the defendant at any time at home or elsewhere and shall permit confiscation of any contraband observed in plain view by the probation officer;
- 12) the defendant shall notify the probation officer within seventy-two hours of being arrested or questioned by a law enforcement officer;
- 13) the defendant shall not enter into any agreement to act as an informer or a special agent of a law enforcement agency without the permission of the court;
- 14) as directed by the probation officer, the defendant shall notify third parties of the risks that may be occasioned by the defendant's criminal record or personal history or characteristics, and shall permit the probation officer to make such notifications and to confirm the defendant's compliance with such notification requirements;
- 15) the defendant shall not own, possess or control any firearms or ammunition, destructive devices or dangerous weapons;
- 16) the defendant shall pay any special assessment, fine, or restitution obligation imposed by this judgment that remains unpaid at the commencement of the term of probation or supervised release in accordance with the payment schedule of criminal monetary penalties set forth in this judgment; and
- 17) the defendant shall notify the probation officer of any material change in the defendant's economic circumstances that might affect the defendant's ability to pay any unpaid amount of restitution, fines, or special assessments.

These conditions are in addition to any other conditions imposed by this Judgment.
